

When the cost of assisted living comes into consideration, it is important to ask for an itemized break down of individual services. At Sally's Residential Care Home, we acquaint our prospective clients with all aspects of our comprehensive care programs, including personalized basic assistance, medication management services, and our wellness program. This way, the family considering Sally's Residential Care Home can ascertain which services benefit the loved one and have a better understanding of the ultimate cost of assisted living

. Moving an elderly parent or relative into a care home is a big enough adjustment without having to be surprised with unexpected fees. Our excellent staff will make every effort to verify that the family is aware of all assisted living costs.

In the event that one of our residents appears to require additional services, our team meets with the family to share these observations. You can trust that Sally's Residential Care Home staff members possess the necessary experience and insight to evaluate the senior on an ongoing basis. If additional services are elected, the family is advised of any changes in assisted living cost. Our primary concern is the health and wellness of your relative, and a direct flow of communication between staff, the family, and the senior is imperative.

In our peaceful, home-like atmosphere, your loved one will receive premium care services. Nursing home costs vary greatly from facility to facility. Sally's Residential Care Home believes in providing ultimate comfort to the senior while keeping the financial impact of assisted living reasonable and manageable.

To learn more about Sally's Residential Care Home, call us today at 1-805-701-1246.