

As supportive companions at Sally's Residential Care Home , we want to become better acquainted with our residents, their backgrounds, likes and dislikes, and get to know their personalities from the very beginning. But first, familiarizing ourselves with a newcomer requires our staff to develop a full picture of the resident's current physical health, social level, and medical requirements. This is imperative in initializing a personalized residential care program for each person. For this purpose, we conduct a thorough assessment to evaluate the needs of new residents and create a framework of their daily requirements for offering proper ongoing care at Sally's Residential Care Home

Your family may be considering residential care homes because you are concerned about the personal mobility of your parent or grandparent. While a resident is fully functional in certain respects, he or she may have difficulty with particular responsibilities, such as remembering to take medication or eating a well-balanced diet. Based on information gleaned from our preliminary assessment, our assisted living facility will create an individualized care plan to suit the specific needs of your loved one. This way, we are in a position to provide the extra follow-up on personal tasks that may have been a source of frustration in recent times.

As we conduct this assessment, we ask an array of questions in order to ensure that the future resident and his or her family feel completely comfortable with our assisted living homes . The care plan is developed to lessen the stress of the resident and of the particular family members that have played caretaker, so all parties can continue to build a satisfying relationship through partnering with our personal care home

In addition to personalized medication management and a nutritious meal program, Sally's Residential Care Home offers wide-ranging activities and a host of entertainment options that enhance the quality of life for all their community members. The devoted care givers at Sally's encourage family and friends to come and take part in the wide variety of birthday celebrations and holiday festivities that take place on a regular basis.

Founders Sally and Kayhan Mojabi pull from decades of experience working as RNs in a variety of fields. They've made it their mission to foster a friendly and warm atmosphere at Sally's Residential Care Home
