

Sally's Residential Care Home Stands as an Ideal Nursing Home

Nursing homes in Southern California benefit from a climate that allows residents to enjoy the pleasures of outdoor activities all year long, as well as a population that is famously friendly and warmhearted. However, aside from these similarities, there a number of vast differences between various senior care facilities. Fortunately, Camarillo-based Sally's Residential Care Home makes the search for a first-rate assisted living facility much simpler.

By offering top-tier medical and health services, as well as a variety of daily activities that help build a truly engaged community, our staff at Sally's Residential Care Home has become celebrated throughout the region for providing the best possible experience for seniors with a variety of interests and talents. Regular activities include arts and crafts, bingo, daily walks and exercise, interactive games, movies, music and pet therapy and even staff and resident follies, among other events.

The individualized experience at Sally's Residential Care Home doesn't end there, though. Each of our residents has an individualized plan of medical care and wellness. In home visits are always arranged by specialists like podiatrists, physical, occupational and speech therapists, and primary care physicians, among others. Offering an even greater level of security, our staff members are trained in first aid, and have frequent trainings by licensed professionals on geriatric needs that include medication management and other standard precautions.

If you're not satisfied with the average experience found at most nursing homes , contact Sally's Residential Care Home today. You'll experience the difference of the impeccable team at Camarillo's best care home.